

Pulling together

We believe every child deserves to grow up healthy, educated, empowered and employed. We believe every single person has the power to help kids break the cycle of poverty. We believe that empowering one person empowers the world.

We take these beliefs very seriously. So seriously, in fact, we recently set a bold goal for our organization: to be actively serving 1 million children and youth by 2025.

It won't happen, though, without all of us — our staff, our kids and our supporters — pulling together. We will need the power of (every)ONE.

Because it's not just one of us that will make this happen. It's not even everyone. It's every single one. All of us, as individuals, coming together. That is power.

Thank you for supporting our efforts toward this goal. We couldn't do it without YOU!
